

The Word from the Streets Essay Contest

Sharpen your pencils! For all you aspiring writers out there, it's the i-SAFE "Word from the Streets" Essay Contest. Take your favorite sport or hobby and tell us in 500 words or less how the Internet has changed it (for the better or the worse). Pro street skater Willy Santos will be judging the essays on originality and creativity. The lucky winner and runner-up will get cool skate gear signed by Willy from Willy's Workshop. Entries are due by December 31, 2004.

The Details

Each student can enter as many separate essays as s/he likes. The contest is open to all students K-12. Each essay must be no longer than 500 words and written legibly in ink or typed. The essay must have the student's name, school, phone number, and e-mail address written on the page(s).

Contestants should e-mail, fax or snail mail the "Word from the Streets" Essay Contest registration form (see next page) to i-SAFE before December 1, 2004. The actual essays must be received by i-SAFE no later than December 31, 2004. i-SAFE will announce the winner on January 17, 2005. Be sure to visit www.isafe.org to find out who the winner is.
